

Three resign from Guild

Three members of the Haliburton Highlands Guild of Fine Arts Board of Directors have resigned following the dismissal of Linda St. Pierre as curator of the Rails' End Gallery in Haliburton. The resignations were based on the method used by the Board in firing the gallery's curator.

David Stephenson, Steven Philips and Michael Butz have all announced that they will no longer serve on the Guild Board.

Guild member Michael Butz, whose letter of resignation appears on page four of this edition of The Times, said in an interview Monday, "I didn't like the way in which Lucinda St. Pierre was fired, and I have submitted a letter of resignation because of it. I feel the Board has acted irresponsibly in this matter." Butz also called the June 24 meeting of the Board, at which the Board voted 7 - 3 to fire St. Pierre, a "kangaroo court", saying that the decision was a "fait accompli" before the meeting was brought to order.

St. Pierre was fired as curator of the Rails' End

Gallery June 29, after she refused to resign at the request of Guild President Ruth Gorrie.

In a statement made last week after her dismissal, however, St. Pierre said that she was prepared to convene the sale, but was not allowed to inform the Board of her decision.

Another Board member, who asked to remain unnamed has also said that the Board's treatment of St. Pierre was improper. "I'm very disappointed with the Strange things were happening on the Minden ball diamond Thursday evening. While a big green bird keeps an eye on the action, a Minden Senior player, suitably attired in Mickey Mouse ears guards first base where Constable Brian Ladurantaye waits for the next hit from a teammate. The action was part of an enjoyable exhibition game Thursday which pitted the long arm of the law against the skill of the Minden Seniors.

Freak storm hits Eagle Lake

A freak wind storm blasted the community of Eagle Lake Wednesday, knocking out power lines and causing thousands of dollars damage to homes and property throughout the area.

Winds of more than one hundred miles per hour raged for up to 15 minutes Wednesday afternoon, felling huge trees and filling the air with driving rain and tossing branches.

The storm, which sprang up without warning, hit Haliburton County in the Brady Lake area before moving east to Kenissis Lake and south to the Maple Lake chain. The high winds struck Eagle Lake at approximately 1:30 p.m., wreaking havoc with trees and cottages in the area before moving east again. The freak storm was tracked by radar and satellite into Quebec and finally to the Maritimes, where it died out over the Atlantic Ocean. The storm passed as quickly as it arose, leaving sunny skies over most areas only one hour after the hardest winds had hit.

The storm sent a wall of water across Eagle Lake, where damage was most severe, tossing small boats into the air and uprooting trees in its path.

No one was reported injured by the storm.

Parson's Road, on the shore of Eagle Lake, was hardest hit by the winds. According to the spokesman at Ontario Hydro, some ten poles were knocked to the ground by the force of the storm, which left some areas of Eagle Lake without power for up to 24 hours. Witnesses at Kenissis Lake say that boaters were forced to dock vessels to seek shelter when huge waves broke docks and vessels from their moorings. One cottager on Parson's Road was reported hit by a fallen tree, and witnesses say a garage in the same area was lifted when a nearby tree uprooted.

Hydro crews from Orillia were called in to help restore power to the hard hit areas of Eagle Lake.

At Camp Northland on Moose Lake, some 700 campers were without hydro or phone service for nearly eight hours. Camp director John Bernstein, who witnessed the blow, described the sudden nature of the storm. "I was standing by the water front that afternoon when I saw a huge black cloud moving across the lake. Suddenly the wind increased, and then it really hit. It had such a punch that it levelled huge trees. We

Woman killed in accident

Fifty-eight year old Irene Sawyer was killed Wednesday when her pickup truck struck a large rock on Highway 118 near the Stanhope Airport Road.

Mrs. Sawyer was west-bound on Highway 118 approximately one kilometre west of the Stanhope Airport Road at 4:50 p.m. Wednesday when she lost control of the vehicle. Police suspect the woman, who was alone in the truck, may have crossed the centre line and over-crossed, throwing the vehicle onto the right shoulder of the road. The vehicle struck the rock and bounced into a tree. It was completely destroyed by the impact.

Strong rains at the time of the crash may also have created hazardous driving conditions. No inquest has been ordered into the crash, which was investigated by PC Boyd Jarvis.

Near drowning

An Uxbridge woman was nearly drowned Wednesday while swimming in 12 Mile Lake, but was revived by two men at the scene.

Robert Marjerrison of Bowmanville and Jerry Sproat of Oakville, both 42, noticed 62-year-old Kathleen Morrison floating face down in the lake Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. The two went to her aid in a boat, and pulled the woman on board where they began mouth to mouth resuscitation. Morrison was taken by ambulance to Minden Red Cross Hospital, where she began breathing on her own again.

She was later transferred from Minden to the Ross Memorial Hospital in Lindsay, where she remained until July 9. Officials at the hospital say the woman was then transferred to Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto due to respiratory problems. Her present condition is not known.

The incident was investigated by PC Mike Legge.

Highway crash

Highway 118 was the scene of another serious accident Wednesday night.

Twenty-year-old Marc Goldfarb of Toronto was driving on Highway 118 at 11:30 p.m. with companion Jonathan Levine, 19, of Mount Royal, Quebec, when he lost control of his 1979 Mazda and struck a culvert in the opposite ditch.

Levine was thrown out of the car when it flipped over, sustaining serious head and internal injuries. Levine was taken to Peterborough Civic Hospital, where he underwent an operation to remove a ruptured spleen.

Goldfarb received only minor injuries in the crash. The vehicle he was driving received $8,000 in damages.

The incident was investigated by Constable Brian Ladurantaye.

Driver charged

A King City man is facing three charges by Minden OPP after an accident Sunday, July 11. Twenty-two year old Gordon Neuser lost control of his van on South Lake Road in Minden township some time after midnight Sunday, and slid into a tree, causing $9,000 in damages to his vehicle. Neuser and his twenty-one year old passenger Dale Line of Maple, escaped with minor injuries.

Neuser was charged by PC David Rogers with careless driving, driving under suspension and failing to report an accident.

Canning Lake property owners asked to support protest over new Ingoldsby bridge

Members of the Canning Lake Property Owners' Association were asked to support a campaign to protest the installation of a new bridge at Ingoldsby. The plea came at the annual meeting of the organization held Sunday.

Joe Curtin, a property owner at the point where the bridge crosses the narrows between Lake Kashagawigamog and Canning Lake, addressed the meeting. He told the gathering that a portion of his property would be affected by the installation of a new bridge and noted that he had already received an expropriation order from the county.

He said it was the county's intention to create an "urban highway" section through the community of Ingoldsby. Curtin said one of the reasons the county wanted a new bridge installed was to enable trucks from the Ingoldsby patrol yard to use the facility.

Curtin said the concrete bridge planned by the county would be two feet lower than the present structure and described the passage of boats underneath as "like going through a letter slot." He said the new bridge would ruin the character of the community.

County Engineer Bill Obee, in an interview Tuesday afternoon, said the statements by the property owner were not completely accurate. He said the bridge is being replaced because it is not up to acceptable standards, "the present facility is too narrow and has limited load capacity." However, Obee said the county trucks do use the bridge as it had a safe loading capacity of eight metric tonnes.

Obee said the new structure would be about a foot lower than the present bridge but that he didn't feel it would pose a hazard for boaters which currently pass under the bridge. The new bridge would entail some realignment of the approaches on either side. The road between the bridge and the Old Ingoldsby Road would be brought up to county standards in a second phase of the project.

Curtin, in addressing the property owners, appealed for immediate support in the form of letters. He said a 30 day deadline has been placed on all submissions with regard to the new structure and that those wishing to protest the action must do so as soon as possible.

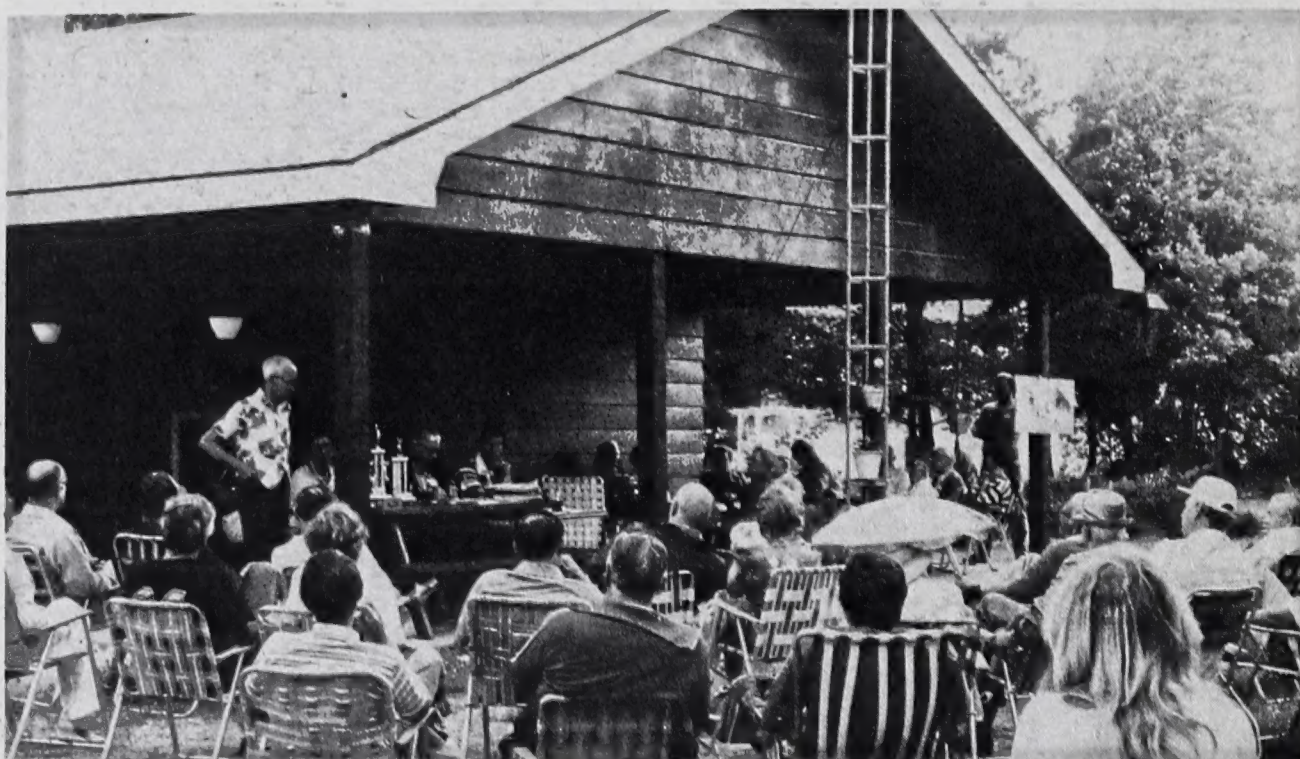

An advertisement advising of the plans appeared in last week's edition of The Times.

Water quality

The Canning Lake property owners were also told that efforts are being made to enlist the help of the Ministry of Environment to determine the cause of extensive algae growth in the Drag River just south of the Scott's Dam. Member Barry Shaw expressed his concern to the meeting saying the condition was fouling the water in the river and could be symptomatic of problems existing in Canning Lake and further up the chain.

The members, which heard a letter from the Ministry of Environment praising them for their concern and vigilance of the lake's water quality, asked the directors to press the ministry for an explanation for the algae growth and possible remedial measures which could be taken.

The members also heard reports on various association activities including a number of social events planned for the summer season.

Members of the Canning Lake Property Owners Association met Sunday at the home of Bill Riddell for their annual meeting. Despite threatening weather a large number of members were on hand for the gathering.

Before the meeting closed, a new executive was elected for the coming year. John Lytle will continue to serve as president. Other members of the executive include: vice presidents John Robson and Whit Morris; treasurer Ron Packer; secretary Jack Ashby; directors Morgan Loucks, Stew Sommacal, Rita Lindsay, Joe Stauffer, Bill Riddell, Michael Van Every, Lorne Dittmer, Jim Martin, Ed Ramsdale, Ken Williamson, Jim Mitchell, Dale De Ath and Don Russell.

Two members of the board of directors retired this year and received a vote of thanks from the membership. They were Reg Ballantyne and Andy Wilson.

The meeting was held at the Bill Riddell home on the lake.

Warden opens new store in Bicroft

Residents of the Improvement District of Bicroft will no longer have to take the long drive into Bancroft to shop. The new Cardiff Food Fair is now open and operating, and according to the owner, doing great business.

Joe Paul, who has been a resident of the Improvement District for the past five years, began construction of the new shopping centre in the fall of 1981, and last Wednesday, July 7, he saw his plans come to fruition with the opening of the new store.

"The response has been phenomenal," Paul said of the reaction of the 700 residents of Bicroft. "Friday's preview opening was a big success, and we've been busy ever since we opened," Paul explained last week.

The new store, which is located at the corner of Highway 121 and Monck Road in the Improvement District, sells most grocery, meat and produce items and includes a bakery and coffee shop. Paul also says he plans to add a hardware store to the complex this fall.

The new centre, which is open Sundays, employs 15 people.

Following the official opening of the store July 7, County Warden Ron Gambell was enthusiastic about the potential growth for the centre. "I'm very glad that Paul had the confidence to build in the county with the economic climate as tough as it is," Gambell commented last week. "Because of this store, there's now a possibility in the not too distant future for a liquor store. This kind of development will attract other business as well, it's bound to. It's a great asset to the county," Gambell said.

The Cardiff Food Fair will also be serving the roughly 3,000 summer residents of Paudash Lake. Gambell also said that business from snowmobilers in winter will be a definite asset to the success of the facility.

Board's action. No one has given her a reasonable justification for her dismissal, which is very unfair. I'm upset with the Board as a whole; there's too much nonsense going on and not enough creative work," the Board member said in an interview Monday.

On the advice of a lawyer, the Board has still not released an official statement on the firing of St. Pierre, although Board members were told June 24 that a press release would be prepared. Guild president Ruth Gorrie admitted last week that St. Pierre's refusal to convene the summer sale was "one of the reasons" for St. Pierre's dismissal, and that the issue "probably brought things to a head" between the Board and St. Pierre.

According to one Board member, the legal counsel was hired before the Board voted to fire St. Pierre. The appointment of a legal counsel was not endorsed at a regular Board meeting, according to the source.

Because St. Pierre was without a contract since she began working for the Guild in July last year, her duties for the annual summer sale were not clear. The Board did pass a motion at a February meeting, however, which cleared St. Pierre of any responsibility for local fund raising. According to one source, a contract had been prepared by the executive of the Board and was scheduled to be discussed at a June 16 meeting of the Board. According to the source, the contract, which was never discussed at the meeting, contained no mention of the summer sale.

Although no Board members who spoke with The Times were certain why St. Pierre was fired, some admitted that certain Guild members were displeased with St. Pierre's running of the gallery. One Board member, who asked to remain unidentified, told The Times that St. Pierre's dismissal could have been brought about, "because she was trying to run the gallery like a professional gallery, when in the past it has been run like a social club". Another Board member stated that, "The Board has been bowing to pressure, pressure that is coming from a small number of people. A lot of people in the guild were used to making decisions, and in my opinion some noses were out of joint because these people were no longer calling the shots."

The firing of Lucinda St. Pierre prompted the guild to schedule a meeting for July 19 to appoint a new executive. The July 19 session, however, has since been cancelled, and a new board will not be named until September.

probably lost at least 16 big trees. We had a few window panes crack, but incredibly, no one was injured".

James Orr of Sir Sam's Inn on Eagle Lake was also amazed that no one was hurt in the storm. "It looked like just another quick shower, but then the wind blew up," Orr told The Times Monday. "We had everybody here holding everything down, and we managed to come through it O.K., but it was just the luck of the draw; we were lucky to be in the right place when it hit." Orr says that as many as 50 trees were blown down on tiny Eagle Lake Island alone.

Phil Graham of Ontario Hydro's Minden office described the path of the storm. "The storm originated in Manitoba, but it was felt first in Northern Ontario, where it levelled many trees and Hydro towers. Next it hit Sudbury, and on Wednesday afternoon, it crossed Haliburton County. It came across Brady Lake to Kushog and Boshkung, and then it blew right up the Beech, Maple and Pine Lakes to Eagle Lake, where the most severe damage was done." Graham added that the storm passed into Quebec before moving into the Maritimes Thursday and out onto the Atlantic. According to Graham, who is also a weather observer for the Canadian Meteorological Service, the severe winds were caused by warm south westerly winds, which cooled when they hit the storm front, and then descended violently into the centre of the system. The storm was classified as a down burst wind storm, having a force almost equal to that of a tornado.

Allan Bagg of the Eagle Lake Store described the damage. "When it finished, this place looked like a jungle. Trees were torn right up by the roots. It came across Eagle Lake like a twister. A wall of water threw boats right up in the air, and they came down upside down. It's amazing what damage can be done in just a few minutes."

Graham estimated damage caused by the storm to be "thousands and thousands" of dollars.

Now that June is over perhaps we can get back to some summer weather. June was a very wet cool month with almost double the average rainfall, over five inches, compared with an average of three or less.

With all the rain the average temperature was below normal. Due to the excess rain the river and all the lakes are above normal level and will probably remain this way for several months, especially the Gull River.

dog days n pl (fr. their being reckoned from the helical rising of the Dog Star (Sirius) 1: the period between early July and early September when the hot sultry weather of summer usu. occurs in the northern hemisphere 2: a period of stagnation or inactivity — Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary.

It's that time of year when we would rather be dabbling our toes in some pleasantly cool Highlands lake, listening intently to the hiss of waves gently expending their energy on the strand rather than attempting to bring some cogent thought to a burning issue of the day. Municipals councils have abandoned us for the moment, and while many matters rest simmering on the proverbial back burner, as any cook knows, summer is no time to find oneself in a kitchen — why else would our forefathers have been so eager to construct that most pleasant of institutions, the summer kitchen. We could comment on the vicissitudes of the Haliburton Highlands Guild of Fine Arts, but the picture is far from clear so perhaps we'll set aside that issue as well. Vandalism, small dogs running at large, pornography, night visitors at Buckingham Palace — they all cry out for the searing incisiveness of the editor's rapier-like pen — as does pitted sidewalks, bumpy roads, automobile accidents, nuclear proliferation, the size of the national debt and what's gotten into the Argos! However, they wait in vain. We've down-shifted into a lower ratio, a slower rate. The siren call of summer beckons and we have been seduced by its gentle kiss.

Just mark us — gone fishing.

Restaurant owners on sales tax

- by John Eakins, M.P.P. -

During two weeks of public hearings before the Resources Development Committee, views were aired by scores of representatives of businesses, municipalities, school boards, universities, labour, senior citizens' and women's groups. Extension of the sales tax to previously exempted items was denounced as discriminatory and onerous. Municipalities and school boards opposed the legislation because it passes on to them new costs, which they have been unable to budget for through property tax increases for this year. With a Conservative majority, the Committee defeated 15 Liberal amendments which would have rolled back the tax on many of the items to which it was extended on May 13. The Provincial Treasurer told the committee that he had been alerted to a number of potential problems which might be dealt with in the law's regulations. For example, universities will be given a full rebate for the 7% tax they must now pay on purchases of research equipment.

Session ends

The Ontario Legislature has now recessed for the summer, and will reconvene on October 12. Legislation was passed on a number of questions, including the following: extension of the 7% Retail Sales Tax to inexpensive restaurant meals, personal hygiene items, labour on repairs, and even pets; mandatory automobile restraints for children; licence plates to stay with the owner rather than the vehicle, and annual registration lineups to be replaced by a computerized system; stricter rules on immunization of school children against childhood diseases; and the term of office for municipal officials to be extended from two to three years, starting this November.

Beer in the Ball Park

In a major policy shift, the government has decided to allow beer to be sold during professional sporting events at Toronto's Exhibition Stadium, Hamilton's Ivor Wynne Stadium and Ottawa's Lansdowne Park. According to the Minister of Consumer and Commercial Relations, sale of beer will be permitted on a test basis until the end of 1983, at which time the province will decide if it should continue. If police or

An open letter to the Board of Directors of the Haliburton Guild of Fine Arts:

I am resigning as a member of the Board of Directors of the HHGFA as a personal protest in response to the firing of Lucinda St. Pierre.

In my opinion, the Board made a serious strategic mistake in firing Lucinda St. Pierre. However, that is not why I find it necessary to tender my resignation.

I cannot agree with the repugnant manner in which it was handled, and therefore I find I cannot defend the Board on this decision.

I believe it is called a kangaroo court when the defendant is not allowed to be present or respond to allegations, and those involved are not allowed to talk about what went on behind the closed doors. Lucinda St. Pierre was not invited to be present at the Board meeting; in fact, she was not even formally notified of a meeting.

Furthermore, within minutes of the decision to terminate her employment, a solution was found to the problem of a convenor for the summer sale.

I don't think that there was ever any question as to her competence as curator of the gallery. She had done an excellent job there, getting things organized, putting shows together and raising money from many levels of government — including the municipality — and private individuals. I have also heard many good reports from both teachers and parents as to the quality of her work in the schools.

As professional craftspeople, Susan and I found her very helpful as a resource person, and she often called us to let us know of a show or sale that we might be interested in.

In these times, when mediocrity is the norm, and many people are trying to work less for more money, I found Lucinda's enthusiasm and willingness to work long days and attend meetings into the wee hours of the morning, as well as contribute substantial personal finances to the gallery, very refreshing.

In closing, I wonder how many of us could do as good a job working for 14 bosses, not to mention countless others who have paid a $12 membership fee and feel that they too should be able to tell you what you should be doing. Lucinda St. Pierre deserves better treatment than she has received!

Horses strain as they attempt to move the stone boat during the annual horsepull contest Saturday in Norland. A large crowd was on hand to take in the action which saw the teams and their handlers competing in five classes.

Horse pull draws crowd

The Norland Firefighters' Annual Horse Pull came off with great success again this year, drawing horse teams from throughout Victoria and Haliburton counties to the day long competition at the Norland Ward Memorial Park last Saturday. Some 500 spectators jammed the grounds to watch teams compete in the five categories, from the Light Ponies to the heavy weights of the work-horse world, the Heavy Horses. The Haliburton Pipe Band was on hand to lend their music to the proceedings. The grounds were lined with booths and games, and many imposing horse teams stood tethered in the afternoon heat waiting their turn in the course.

In horse pull competition, teams are hitched to a skidder loaded with concrete block, and timed while they pull the load. Weights are increased as each team qualifies, until, first, second and third places are determined according to how far the teams pull during their allotted time. Here are the results of the Saturday event:

Light Ponies: 1. Larry Greer, Norland; 2. Gerald Watt, Maynooth; 3. Ken Danford, Sterling.

Heavy Ponies: 1. Larry Greer; 2. Ken Danford; 3. Clayton Cameron, Cobocok.

Light Horses: 1. Doug Coad, Lindsay; 2. Bill Campbell, Ennismore; 3. Dave Sisson, Minden.

Heavy Horses: 1. Leroy Nesbitt, Reaboro; 2. Dennis Stewart, Woodville; 3. Joe McFeeters, Fenelon Falls.

Women's Single Horse: 1. Isabelle Wessell, Norland; 2. Joan McLean, Oakwood; 3. Sheri Wessell, Norland.

Hustlers take Merchants

The Rockcliffe Hustlers romped over the Bobcaygeon Merchants last Wednesday, handing their southern rivals a convincing 11-2 defeat.

The victory was a significant one for the local side, as the merciless Merchants had won the first two match-ups of the season against the Hustlers.

Jack Snell pitched the winner for the Rockcliffe team, with Dave Hartwick bashing out twin doubles while Mike Carpenter and Dave Nicholls came up with a pair of hits each.

The Hustlers will face the Lindsay Midgets tonight, (July 14) then travel to Woodville to take on the Woodville Nine. The Hustlers now have an impressive eight wins for the season and only three defeats. They're eyeing top spot currently held by the powerful Lindsay York Tavern team.

Although there is some hope that the recent federal budget will provide some help to our sagging economy it failed to give any immediate confidence to the public that things are under control. That, in fact, seems to be the major problem. The present uncertainty about interest rates, job prospects, and the rate of inflation has halted development and created a recession that need not be with us.

While many contractors and suppliers are sitting idle many businesses have shelved anticipated expansion plans until they see more evidence of the government dealing with the problem effectively. In many cases it is not a lack of finances, but a lack of confidence that is holding up development plans which would aid our economy. If the budget had taken the "bull by the horns" now, instead of setting up committees to study ideas next fall, this summer may have been a more prosperous one for many.

In the meantime many tourist operators are reporting a good number of late bookings still coming in to take the place of the cancellations that inevitably had to come for many. There are still lots of prospective visitors who haven't made decisions about their holidays and those who are advertising to them are receiving good response.

Wilberforce hillclimb

The Canadian National Hillclimbing Championship for motorcycles will be held in Wilberforce on August 29 at the Wilberforce Ski Resort. John Williams, the World Champion for the past five years, has teamed up with property owner Bill Thomas to bring this major event to the area and it promises to be one of the most exciting competitions we have yet seen in the County.

Hillclimbing is done on huge specially built six cylinder machines that reach speeds of over 100 miles per hour while ascending an almost vertical hill and there's a thrill a minute. The championships have been held in the past in the Hockley Valley and have drawn crowds of almost 5,000 spectators. Major T.V. coverage is also anticipated.

Bill is developing his property to also accommodate dirt bikes and various forms of 4 wheel drive vehicles that are now becoming so popular. A motocross flat track is now nearing completion and will be in operation within a week. A course for the "4 x 4's" has been laid out and marked and is ready to be put to the test.

Many local residents have voiced concern about these new threats to our environment, but just like snowmobiles they will create no problems if they can be directed to specific trails or facilities that are designed to accommodate them. There is, of course, a fee for the use of Bill's property, which we expect the users will gladly pay in order to pursue their hobby without antagonizing anyone.

More information on the facilities available at Wilberforce may be obtained by calling Bill Thomas at 448-2924.

New members

We were pleased to attend the official opening of the "Cardiff Food Fair" on Highway 121 at the "Townsite of Cardiff" last week. The new facility provides the local residents with a modern supermarket that can compete with any of the chains for convenience and price and, in addition, features a unique snack bar with seating either inside or on the lawn. The new centre was created by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Paul and is being ably managed by Rob Harrington. If the store is supported as well as Joe anticipates he intends to add more stores to it to provide such services as a hardware and laundromat. Rob also indicated that they are interested in providing space for a farmer's market on weekends if they can contact enough interested participants.

In nearby Wilberforce we are also pleased to welcome the new Wilberforce I.G.A. as a new member. It is located just west of the main street adjacent to the band and LCBO. This bright new facility is managed by Kerry Barbour who is still looking forward to meeting many of the summer residents for the first time.

Just opposite Silent Lake Park on Highway 28 is the Wildwood Restaurant. This impressive building has been closed for almost two years, the later part of which it was undergoing extensive renovations under the guidance of present owner Gordon Skinner. Gordon recently retired after a successful career in various segments of the automotive industry and has extensive long range plans for this property. At this time the dining room is open and will be featuring special theme smorgasbords on special nights. They have already gained an excellent reputation for their meals in the short time since they re-opened.

Thanks

Our new addition to the Welcome Centre is finally reaching the stage that we can show some pride in the building and provide better facilities to the public. We thanked those that provided the initial work but the painting and other final touches are also very important. We thank Blacks Hardware and Minden Home Hardware for donating paint and stain and our travel counsellors Linda and Suzie for applying it. Thanks also to the County and the Municipality for their co-operation and the Minden Horticultural Society for the addition of the flowers. Don Nye of Woodland Graphics topped it all off with a beautiful sign featuring a map of the County.

Now it's done, drop in and see it and pick up some literature on Haliburton plus other parts of Ontario.

Don't forget

The Country Good Times are on this weekend in Wilberforce featuring a parade, beauty contest, talent contest, ball tournament, midway, dances and beer gardens.

liquor inspectors report that beer-drinking fans get carried away and offend others, the province will consider ending the experiment. Beer sales will only be permitted at professional sporting events, such as Blue Jays baseball games, Blizzard soccer games and Canadian Football League games, and will be strictly controlled. Beer will be sold at refreshment booths only, in paper cups, two to a customer. The policy may be in effect within two to three weeks, when the Cabinet has passed the regulation, stadiums have made official requests, and municipal councils have made a ruling.

All hands on deck

It will be all hands on deck July 22 at the Minden Library and Cultural Centre.

The occasion is the arrival of the Deckhands Puppet Theatre which is making another visit to the community.

Sponsored by the Lake Ontario Regional Library System and the Minden Library, the program consists of two plays especially for children. The shows this year will be "Why the Bear has a Stumpy Tail" and "The Plump Princess".

The Deckhands is a puppet theatre group that has been touring the region for the past eight years. Using students as narrators and puppeteers, the troupe visits close to 100 libraries in its five week season.

The program runs about a half an hour and everyone is invited to attend. There is no admission charge.

The Deckhands will be appearing at the Minden Centre at 3 p.m.

Coffee: a taxing experience

I love coffee, I love tea, I love the java, java it loves me. Pour me a shot from that wonderful pot,

A cup a cup a cup a cup a cup...

It's getting more expensive to get out of bed every day, and now it's costing 7 per cent more just to wake up. Following the release of the provincial budget several weeks ago, food in restaurants has become taxable, and that means that the old restaurant standard, the immortal cup of coffee, is going up in price in Haliburton County.

Not every restaurant in the Highlands has responded the same to the new sales tax on restaurant food. While some have simply tacked on the 7 per cent others have jockeyed prices to keep coffee ringing in at an even number on the till. The K & W Restaurant, for example, in downtown Minden, has added 2 cents to their 30 cent cup and 4 cents to the mega size; now it costs 54 cents to carry out a large styrofoam urn of the brown elixir. Mindenites will dig deeper to open eyes wider these days.

Meanwhile, on the by-pass, there's a sharp jump in java as well. The Brown Owl, respected meeting place of highway coffee habitues, has opted to boost their price for coffee from 35 to 40 cents, adding 2 cents tax and another 3 cents to boot. The champion of fast food and women's baseball, The Dixie Lee, has followed K & W's lead, adding 2 cents to the 35 basic cup and leaving it at that, for a new price of 37 cents. Across the road at the Schnitzel House, the price soars high above all others; a bottomless cup now glows in at 64 cents on the computerized till, a sophisticated machine that has caused sophisticated problems with the new tax. Says Mrs. Homestead, owner and operator of the Schnitzel House, "Our register is computerized, we just ring in the amount and the sales tax is added automatically. But we've had to pay $100 to have that change made to the machine, and I feel like sending the government the bill."

Haliburton's Kozy Corner, the price has gone up the minimum 7 per cent to 37 cents a cup. Owner Bill VanderHorst has some rather firm ideas about the government's new tax system, and he took the occasion soon after the tax was announced to expound on the subject for The Times. "It's a big pain" VanderHorst says bluntly, of the new tax scheme. "The food dollar has been cut by 7 per cent, and I believe we're losing 7 per cent of our business. Everything is taxable in this restaurant now except the local newspapers. Things are not picking up like they usually do in the summer, and I'm not saying it's the sales tax alone. I think it's just the way things are generally right now. The food business, though, is definitely not up to snuff, and anybody who says it is...well, I wouldn't like to call him a liar, but that's the way business is..." VanderHorst doesn't mince words when on the subject of coffee.

At George Hector's in Hall's Lake, the price is up to an even 45 cents to keep the records straight. The owner feels the increase from 40 cents was essential. "The price of coffee just pennies itself to death," he explains gruffly.

While the price of coffee at Mr. Fogg's of Carnarvon is now a lofty 45 cents plus tax, for the bottomless cup, operators there had the market cornered, at least for the month of June. Celebrating his ninth year in business, owner John Hogg offered a 9 cent cup for the entire month. If you're in Carnarvon and suffering from fatigue, it could be the spot for you. Otherwise, if you subscribe seriously to the Brown God of Get Up and Go, start counting your pennies.

Open 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday to Saturday
Fridays to 9 p.m.

Constable Gary Chapman of the Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police tries to concentrate on the incoming pitch while one of the questionable members of the Seniors ladies baseball team attempts some devious tactics. The game, Thursday evening at the Minden diamond, drew a large and appreciative crowd. The final score was 25 to 25 in favour of the seniors.

Three teams tied in ladies league

Three teams now claim first place as the Haliburton County Ladies Softball league heads into its final two weeks of play. West Guilford, Haliburton and the Minden Dixie Lee Seniors all hold down top spot with 22 points each. Close on their heels and making a strong bid is the Minden Junior team with 18 points in the six team league.

West Guilford opened last week's play by travelling to Wilberforce and defeating their hosts 22 - 7. They were led by Michelle Rosenberg, Linda Sisson and Bethany Woods. Wilberforce had a good night from Lynne Storey and Jo Olszewski. Linda Morrison was the winning pitcher.

Haliburton had their hands full Monday night but managed a win in defeating Carnarvon 21 - 17.

The two Minden teams took the diamond as well Monday night with Dixie Lee taking a 15 - 8 win over the Juniors. Nelda Cully and Helen Burk led the Seniors while the Juniors were aided had strong performances from Susan Kennedy and Terry Dillon. The win went to Anne Hewson while the losing pitcher was Andrea Burk.

These two teams met again Tuesday evening and again the Seniors claimed the win taking the contest 10 - 8. Marg Fielding hit a home run for Dixie Lee. The Seniors were ahead 10 - 4 going into the seventh inning when the Juniors made a strong four-run effort before they were retired with the bases loaded. Nelda Cully was the winning pitcher. The loss went to Lori Dunham.

Wilberforce travelled to Carnarvon Tuesday night and defeated their hosts 16 - 9. They were led by Lynne Storey and Jo Olszewski each with a pair of home runs. Wanita Harrison and Joan Alger turned in strong games for Carnarvon.

West Guilford defeated Haliburton in the other Tuesday night game. The final score was 8 - 4. Linda Morrison and Peggy Barry turned in strong performances for West Guilford. Joan McKay was the winning pitcher while Nancy Maughan took the loss.

Fans are reminded of the annual tournament scheduled for July 23, 24 and 25 in Minden. The first game gets underway Friday evening. Teams from the local league taking part include West Guilford, Minden Dixie Lee Seniors and Wilberforce. Visiting teams include Lindsay, Gravenhurst, Cobocok, Norland, Cameron, Paudash, Little Britain, Bobcaygeon, Sunderland, Oakwood, Ops and two teams from Bancroft.

The following are the league standings as of July 6:

Team	GP	W	L	Pts.
West Guilford	15	11	4	22
Haliburton	16	11	5	22
Minden Dixie Lee Srs.	16	11	5	22

Local golfer wins a spot in the Pro-Am

A golfer's memory is filled with many images of past games; a vicious slice streaking far out into space, a crippling duff skidding violently down the fairway; blinding sand storms rising thickly during deep excavations in the trap. But Haliburton golfer Keith Stephenson no doubt has other images in his mind right now. He's preparing for the Canadian Open Pro-Am tournament, and dreaming of the long, straight drive.

Stephenson, who owns the Haliburton Highlands Golf Club on Lake Kashagawigamog, will be teeing off with golfing greats such as Watson, Nicholas and Crenshaw on July 28 at the Glen Abbey course in Oakville. Stephenson was the winner of a ticket raffle at the Aurora Highlands Club in Aurora, and so finds himself preparing for his day with the pros.

Ordinarily, a golfer pays $1600 for the experience of playing in the Pro-Am, a day-long tournament which puts pros and amateurs together in 52 foursomes. Golfers at the Aurora club, however, decided to pool resources and send one lucky member to Oakville for the tournament.

Stephenson bought the Haliburton Club five years ago after moving up from Aurora. His 16 stroke handicap will place him in the "B" flight for the tournament, one of three from which amateurs will be drawn. One pro will play with three amateurs in the Wednesday game, with the foursomes being chosen by draw at a dinner banquet July 26 in Toronto.

It will undoubtedly be the most exciting 18 holes Stephenson has ever played, and not without a certain amount of pressure. Says the 51-year-old Stephenson, "I'll probably be as nervous as a wet hen, but I'm really enthused. It will be a lot of fun, and a lot of golfers would love to have won the chance to play."

A lot of people call life "The Survival of the Fittest". You know, a lot of people are right.

The Setting

If Oriental food appeals to you, then you're bound to like the Gelert Gardens Restaurant.

Chinese food is a specialty of the house at the Gelert Gardens and they take great pride in the way they prepare and serve the tasty dishes on the menu.

Rather than relying on suppliers of prepared oriental food, the Chinese cuisine served at the Gelert Gardens is made fresh in their own kitchen. They take the time and effort to ensure your meal meets your every expectation. It's a challenge and one that hosts at the Gelert Gardens, Jean Jennings and Lorraine Martin, take great pride in meeting.

The menu covers the full range of traditional oriental cuisine and they're always willing to try something that isn't on the menu, if the ingredients are available.

While Chinese food is the feature item on the Gelert Gardens menu, they also cater to traditional North American tastes. The bill of fare includes the full range of dishes so that if oriental cuisine is not to your liking, you'll be sure to find something to tempt your taste buds.

The Gelert Gardens is located on County Road Number One in the small community of Gelert. It is open daily and fully licenced. For reservations call 286-3223.

Mrs. Curry's son, whose name is Fred Grier, has retired from General Electric after forty long years. He took his mother out to dinner this Sunday. Where they were driving, they didn't say. It was a really nice thing to do since she gets lonely sometimes, and feeling quite blue.

It was nice to have Rev. Burgess back at Hyland Crest. The Thompsons filled in for him, and gave us of their best. Mrs. Burgess goes into hospital this Tuesday, to have her foot straightened, so she can walk the straight and narrow way. We trust she will be truly blessed, and the operation a real success.

Doris is back with us again, after a week's holiday. Linda did a super job while her sister was away.

We see our gazebo is taking shape at last. I hope they hurry up and do the job real fast.

We have a new part-time maintenance man, whose name is Gary Foster. When he was courting the gal who is now his wife, he thought that he had lost her.

Watched three interesting movies here Monday night.

It's nice to have Peter Fearrey back with us again. When he left us he was in real pain.

Rev. George Elliott held a real nice communion service in the Chapel this sixth day of July. Few men attended - I don't know just why. Fred Ballard played the music. We can always depend on Fred.

We had a barbeque at noon this lovely July day. Hamburgs, hot dogs, soft drinks and ice cream, and didn't have to pay.

Earl Cooper couldn't come to play the music Tuesday night, so he sent his better half along to do the job up right. She played some fine selections and entertained us fine. We would welcome

Elinor back to entertain us any time.

Wednesday afternoon the Ladies Auxillary held their bake sale, strawberry tea and bazaar. They were hoping the people would come from near and far. But the weather was so humid and so blooming hot, they didn't care, whether they came out or not. I knew our girls were disappointed. They've been working really hard, making lovely dolls and cushions, and knitting afghans by the yard.

Do you know?

Question: "I lost my marriage licence, how do I get a copy?"

Answer: Write to the Office of the Registrar General, MacDonald Block, Toronto, M7A 1Y5. Give your husband's name, wife's maiden name, place and date of marriage. Enclose $5.00 payable to the Treasurer of Ontario.

This inquiry is one of many, recently addressed to the Haliburton County Information Centre.

The centre is a telephone and drop-in information and referral service, located in the Dysart Drag River Municipal Building in Haliburton. Office hours are 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., Monday to Friday. Telephone 457-2733. Cardiff, Dorset, and Kinmount area residents may call collect.

The service is confidential, neutral and free of charge to all Haliburton County citizens. It is funded by Employment and Immigration Canada and Haliburton County Home Support Services.

Callers are referred to the appropriate resources in the fields of health, education, social services and recreation.

Watch for more questions and answers in future issues of this paper.

The Gelert Ladies served us lunch this Thursday afternoon. When it was all served so nicely, Doris said let's play them a tune. So Doris on the piano, and I the harmonica did play. Ruby Francis, and Linda danced around the table. It made me think of the good old days, when we were young and able.

It is sing-song time this Friday afternoon. Grace Coburn and Fred Ballard came to play, and sing some tunes. Grace led us in a real sing song to those that were on hand. Then she sang "Galway Bay" and "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands". We thank you both for coming each Friday afternoon, to lead us in the singing, and play some merry tunes.

Here is another list of selections now available to you from the Minden Library.

Juvenile Fiction

Title: Angie's First Case. Author: Donald J. Sobol.

Another detective adventure - this time with Angie Zane and Jess Berg. Her aunt is a police woman and she tells Angie and Jess of some mysteries and the book tells how some of these are solved. A fast-moving story.

Juvenile Non-Fiction

Title: The Invention of Simple Things. Author: Wulffson. J608.

Did you ever wonder who invented the shopping cart, the bicycle and 28 common everyday things?

This is a book of just items which we take for granted.

Adult Fiction

Title: Deceptions. Author: Judith Michael.

Every woman dreams about what she could have been if she had made different choices, lived a different life. In Deceptions two women dare to live that dream.

Stephanie and Sabrina Hartwell are identical twins - identical in appearance but quite different in character. Raised in the diplomatic circles of Europe, they were born to a life of sophistication and adventure. Sabrina was determined to live up to the free-wheeling promises of her youth; but Stephanie longed for the stable, close family she'd never had. While Sabrina married and divorced a marquis, established an exclusive antique shop in London and was swept up in the pleasure-seeking world of the international jet set, Stephanie settled into a quiet life in Evanston, Illinois, with her scientist husband and their two children. But Stephanie is beginning to question her marriage and Sabrina is beginning to wonder if there isn't more to life than a series of parties and lovers. On a trip together in China, Stephanie persuades Sabrina to play as children - to trade identities - just for a week.

When an accident forces them to continue the week's deception, both women realize that their lives are changing with dizzying speed - but whose life is whose?

Deceptions is a rich deliciously readable novel which speaks to the heart of every woman.

Adult Non-Fiction

Title: The Lord God Made Them All. Author: J. Herriot. (1981) ANF

For anyone who loves animals this book is a must and is one of a series.

A warm account of the daily triumphs and disasters of an English country veterinarian.

The Times

spot the shot contest

Each week during the summer, we'll publish a photograph, like the one below, of a familiar scene in the Haliburton Highlands. All you have to do is identify the scene and you could win

$20 gift certificate

redeemable at either the Minden or Haliburton

Foodmaster.

The winner will be chosen by lot from all the correct entries received by the closing date. Entries can be dropped off at The Times office Minden, sent to Box 97, Minden or placed in the contest boxes at the Minden or Haliburton Red and White Foodmasters.

There will be a new contest each week, so keep your eyes peeled and try to spot the shot.

What is the name of the lake in which these youngsters are enjoying the summer? The deadline for entries is 4 p.m., July 26. The winner will be announced in the July 28 edition of The Times. Please indicate contest Number 3 on your entry.

— WINNER —

The winner of our first contest was Karen Stewart of Minden. She identified the photograph as being that of Big Boshkung Lake (taken facing north near the bridge on Highway 118). Other entrants with the correct answer included: Mrs. C. Michalik; Stephanie Wells; Lorri Neil; Doris Stewart and Shirley Howe. Congratulations Karen.

around the county town

by Yvonne Guida

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kulenich from McDonald, Pa. (near Pittsburg) returned to visit Minden after 34 years.

In the year 1948 they were on their honeymoon when they visited Minden. At that time Minden village was lovely and so were the people.

Mrs. Kulenich says, "Today the town has changed, new bridge, new buildings, water lines, sewers, etc. but the people from this village have not changed. They are just wonderful."

"We want to thank them for our wonderful stay here."

The Kulenich's were guests at Minden House during their return visit.

The Agnes Jamieson Art Gallery is currently exhibiting the art of Mr. Bruce Mills, which will be on display until July 28. The Art Gallery will be open daily except Sunday from 10 to 12 and from 1 to 5 p.m. On Thursday the gallery will also be open at noon and from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. I apologize for my error last week. When I wrote about the new George Pratt sculptures on permanent exhibit at the Gallery I said that George now resides in Alberta. I meant to say Vancouver, British Columbia. Please forgive my mistake.

Keep in mind the yard sale to be held in Lutterworth Estates on Saturday, July 17. There will also be a hobby table and bake sale, etc. Rain date is July 18. Lutterworth Estates is on Highway 35, three miles south of Minden.

Deck Hand Puppets will hold a show in the Common Room of the Minden Cultural Centre on Thursday, July 22 at 3 p.m. The puppeteers are from Peterborough. The show is free and everyone is welcome. During the summer, movies will be held in the Common room every Friday evening, starting at 7:15. The movies will consist of stories and cartoons, and are also free.

The new chairs and tables have arrived at the Cultural Centre, and add greatly to its charm, and its practicality.

Sandra Vandewood from Kelowna, British Columbia, is having a very pleasant visit with her mother, Mrs. Daisy Bates of Lutterworth Pines.

The St. Paul's Bazaar which was held last Saturday was a huge success. A delicious luncheon was served, the highlight being scrumptious Strawberry shortcake. The winning ticket on the beautiful Dresden Plate designed quilt, number 653 was held by Mrs. Carol Henderson from Oakville. Congratulations to this fortunate lady. Incidentally St. Paul's ACW is still selling hasty notes and spoons with a picture of St. Paul's church depicted. The notes sell for $2.00 and the spoons are $4.50.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Hie of Gravenhurst visited her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Harrison of West Guilford.

Mr. Bill Langman and friend Ruth of Toronto, called on the Elmer Harrisons this past weekend.

Happy Birthday and many happy returns to Caroline Jones of Hyland Crest Senior Citizens Home, who celebrated her birthday Monday, July 12.

Mrs. Lillian Porter visited with her son Bill and his family in Oshawa.

Mrs. Mary Bowins spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Fred Harrison at Boskung Lake, last week.

Mr. Fred Cooper, who underwent surgery at Civic Hospital in Peterborough, is now home and convalescing nicely. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hinds celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on the weekend at their summer home on Fairfield Bay, Mountain Lake. The celebration was hosted by their family and attended by many friends and relatives.

Joanne Mitchell-Wolch and her husband Bill and their two children visited with Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell on Drag River on the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Cox attended the wedding of her nephew Ron Cowan to Helen O'Toole at Allandale last Saturday.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Cox and family from Peterborough visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Cox. Their grandson Joel is visiting for the week.

Mrs. Lorne Dawson from Toronto visited with Dora Dawson last week.

Carol and Ken Cox celebrated their daughter Christina's birthday with a lovely party on Sunday.

I am sorry to report on the death of Mrs. Grace Simmons of Iroindale who passed away last week. Mrs. Simmons was very active in the Red Cross Hospital Society in Minden, and was a dedicated executive member of the Snowdon Township Council for many years. Our deepest sympathy to her family and friends.

Our condolences also to the friends and family of Mr. Jack Mawbey Jr. of Tory Hill, Mrs. Irene Sawyer of West Guilford, who died suddenly last week, and Mrs. Ethel MacDonald of Hyland Crest Home. They will be sorely missed.

Mrs. Ada Duffy of Toronto will be visiting the John Rockors for a few days.

Tickets are now on sale at the Minden Cultural Centre for the beautiful hand-woven queen-size bedspread - a luscious shade of blue - to be raffled off. Tickets are $1.00 or 6 for $5.00. The weavers have certainly outdone themselves on this exquisite spread.

The Horticultural Society will hold its annual flower show at the Minden Arena Auditorium on August 12 and 13. The theme this year is Sunshine, Lollipops and Roses. Anyone wishing information for this event may obtain it from Jean Lacey.

Congratulations and best wishes to my cousin Major Victor Furney, originally from Thorald, who has just taken command of Lowther Airforce Base near Kapuskasing. Victor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Furney, of the Thorald News.

AT REST

SAWYER, IRENE CLARA - as the result of an accident on Wednesday, July 7th, 1982 in her 58th year, beloved wife of Carl Sawyer, dear mother of Larry of Minden, Lyle of West Guilford, Peggy (Mrs. Pouw) of Brampton, Gail of Toronto and Terry of Brampton, loving grandmother of Lynn & Ben Pouw and Carmen and Curtis Sawyer, fondly remembered by many sisters and brothers.

Resting at the Gordon A. Monk Funeral Home, Minden after 2:00 p.m. Friday. Funeral Service in the chapel on Saturday, July 10th at 1:30 p.m.

Interment Maple Lake United Church Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

MISCIO, PETROL - in loving memory of my dear brother who passed away July 20, 1979.

If I had all the world to give I'd give it, yes, and more
To hear his voice, see his smile
And greet him at the door.
But all I can do, dear brother
Is to go and tend your grave.
And leave behind the tokens
of love
To the best brother God made.
I'd like to think when life is done,
Wherever heaven may be.
You'll be standing at the door
Petrol, there, to welcome me.

Lovingly remembered and
sadly missed,

Nell
